Physician's Medical Form

Instructions: Please review the information contained on this page with your doctor.

NOTES TO THE EXAMINING PHYSICIAN:

The Heritage Greece Program is hosted by the American College of Greece in Athens. The Heritage Greece experience requires student participants to exercise physical and mental capabilities. It is imperative, as a safeguard to the health of the participant, that this report be as complete and precise as possible. This form should be completed by a physician who has preferably known the applicant for at least 12 months prior to departure. Students are expected to meet the following requirements:

- Possess the physical and mental wellbeing required to participate in a foreign setting where resources and the environment differs from what they are accustomed
- Exercise good judgment and discretion to fulfill essential program components, including appropriate standards of conduct
- Display flexibility to function if faced with uncertain and/or stressful situations
- Participate in typical classroom work and planned excursions and activities, which includes moderate physical activity (e.g., walking in heat to ancient sites and museums, hiking, swimming, various other sports activities, dancing, etc.).

In addition, any applicant who has been under the care of a specialist (for example, cardiologist, neurologist, psychiatrist, psychologist, social worker, etc.) must submit a written, detailed report from said specialist to give a complete diagnosis, prognosis, and evaluation. It is imperative that Heritage Greece receives a written report from a specialist to decide the eligibility of the participant.

If a participant is required to continue receiving medication while under the auspices of the Program, he/she should have a medical letter giving such details with a full explanation. Since medicine is often not available under the same trade name as in the country of origin, the full pharmacological name of all medicines and drugs used by the patient should be given. In any event, participants should bring an extra supply of the required medicine with him/her, some of which should be entrusted to the group leader.

If any changes take place in the participant's condition within the last ten days before orientation/ departure, the participant must submit an explanatory medical letter detailing diagnosis, prognosis, and treatment. Failure to submit such a letter shall result in expulsion of the applicant from the Program.

PLEASE EVALUATE THE APPLICANT'S MEDICAL CONDITION IN LIGHT OF THE FOLLOWING FACTORS THAT DESCRIBE THE PROGRAM:

Social Environment: Most participants will be living in a communal environment. They will be sleeping in a dormitory or sharing living quarters with many other people and eating in communal dining facilities.

Activity: The participants will be expected to participate in extensive tours of the country, which will include walking long distances, climbing, hiking, swimming, and related strenuous activities in Greece's hot summer climate. In addition, the participants will be free to use the athletic facilities of ACG (swimming pool, weight room, sports facilities, etc.)

Medical Facilities: The physician should also bear in mind that the American College of Greece has a first aid infirmary staffed by a registered nurse. All acute illnesses and serious accidents are referred for proper diagnosis and treatment to local hospitals and/or local doctors. There are no facilities on campus for the treatment of chronic disturbances.

The information on this form, and all supplementary letters and reports, on the physical, mental, or psychological condition of the applicant shall be held as confidential.

Should any participant upon arrival in Greece, or during his/her stay, be found to be suffering from any condition, mental or physical, that is not fully disclosed on this medical form or in an accompanying letter from a qualified medical or psychological professional, then:

He/she may, at the sole and absolute discretion of the American College of Greece, or its representatives in Greece or in the United States, be returned to his/her location of origin at the participant's own expense (and there shall be no refund on deposits paid for the Program.)

The American College of Greece, National Hellenic Society, and their respective representatives in the United States and in Greece are thereby fully released from responsibility or liability of any kind whatsoever arising out of any aspect of such participant's medical history and mental or physical condition, and shall be indemnified by the participant for any and all expenses incurred as a result of the failure to fully disclose material information related to the physical and/or mental health of the student.
